#EUandYOU

Our lives have changed dramatically since the onset of the coronavirus pandemic over the past year. We have found and adapted quickly to new ways of interacting, working, and schooling. Almost everyone now uses some sort of digital tools to perform daily tasks. But as with all change and challenges, so too come new opportunities.

Such is the case with our Young European Ambassadors who have risen to the challenge of moving their events successfully online and strengthening their networks on social media. Don't miss the latest event "The Power of the Hashtag", featuring an exciting line-up of young leaders working for social change. It kicks off this evening 27 April at 18:00 (CET) and you can watch it via the link below. Our selected stories in this issue also reveal how some digital journeys are being shaped by EU support.
