YEAs rolling with events in March

March has been a very active month for the Young European Ambassadors (YEAs) all over the Western Balkans.

It started with marking International Women's Day on 8 March with a series of public events in cities including Banja Luka, Belgrade, Kumanovo, Niš, Novi Sad, Podgorica, Priština/Prishtina, Sarajevo, Skopje, and Tirana. YEAs teamed up with WeBalkans to promote the #BreakTheBias campaign. Over 1,500 citizens participated in this YEA street action aiming to break the bias of gender stereotypes.

Also in March, 40 YEAs joined the Route WB6 Volunteer Caravan tour across eight towns in the Western Balkans. They joined other volunteers and young journalists from the Hajde platform. The Route WB6 project promoted youth mobility, volunteering and peacebuilding in the region through young volunteers engaging with local partners in activities such as environmental protection actions, restoration initiatives, creative workshops with children, meetups, and youth councils.
